

The Gala Agape 2021

Without the ability to host our annual fundraising banquet this year, the Christian Learning Center turned to the creativity of Kelli Jo Wright—a longtime supporter of the CLC and owner of local news outlet The Volunteer Times. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Kelli Jo for her production of The Gala Agape 2021 in the style of a virtual telethon!

The Gala Agape 2021 streamed as a live event on Sunday, February 28th. In case you missed it, it's not too late to view the hour-long video found exclusively on The Volunteer Times Facebook page. The event was hosted by the energetic Allan Miller and featured stories from CLC students, donors, board members, and staff. All were excited to celebrate the ministry that is taking place in the hearts of Campbell County's newest generation. Viewers also enjoyed the musical talents of Vanessa Dupuy and Andrea Bowman with Brandon Cox. Special thanks to The Harbor for contributing the use of their stage for our event. We also send a big THANK YOU to each business, church, and individual who has partnered with us financially in support of this worthy cause to advance the Kingdom of God!

Sweet News! Chamber of Commerce Hosts Chocolate Crawl

On February 8th and 10th, the CLC partnered with Blessed Beauties Boutique for a Chocolate Crawl hosted by the Campbell County Chamber of Commerce. This weeklong Valentine-themed event promoted small businesses and organizations across the county! Each location served up deliciously free chocolate goodies to the public, and the CLC jumped in on the fun with chocolate-covered strawberries, Oreos, and cupcakes. We enjoyed the company of Whitney McCreary who offered great deals from Blessed Beauties Boutique and gave out free hot chocolate bombs as well. Thank you to each student, family, and community member who snacked, shopped, and celebrated with us!
